

Serenity Co-Op, Inc.

Medical & Mental Health Disclaimer

Effective Date: July 12, 2026

Serenity Co-Op, Inc. is a secular nonprofit organization dedicated to improving wellness through education, accessibility, and community. The information provided through serenitycoop.org, the Virtual Connection, the Support Portal, the Green Ribbon Movement, educational materials, podcasts, social media, and future Local Connection programming is intended solely for educational and informational purposes.

No Medical or Mental Health Advice

Serenity Co-Op does not provide medical care, psychiatric care, psychological treatment, therapy, counseling, diagnosis, or crisis intervention. Nothing published by Serenity Co-Op should be interpreted as medical, psychological, legal, or professional advice.

No Provider-Patient Relationship

Your use of our website, educational resources, podcasts, virtual sessions, or community activities does not establish a physician-patient, therapist-client, counselor-client, or other professional relationship with Serenity Co-Op or its volunteers, directors, partners, or representatives.

Professional Care

Individuals experiencing physical or mental health concerns should consult qualified licensed professionals. Never disregard professional medical advice or delay seeking treatment because of information obtained through Serenity Co-Op.

Emergency Situations

If you believe you or another person is experiencing a medical emergency or mental health crisis, immediately contact 911 or your local emergency services, or utilize available crisis resources. Serenity Co-Op does not provide emergency monitoring or emergency response services.

Third-Party Resources

Serenity Co-Op may provide links to third-party organizations and support resources for convenience. Inclusion does not constitute endorsement, and Serenity Co-Op is not responsible for the services, advice, or content provided by those organizations.

Acceptance

By using Serenity Co-Op resources, you acknowledge that you understand and accept this disclaimer.