

Serenity Co-Op, Inc.

Crisis Center Disclaimer

Effective Date: July 13, 2026

Serenity Co-Op's Crisis Center provides educational information and connects visitors with established crisis resources. It is not an emergency response service.

Emergency Situations

If you or someone else is in immediate danger, call 911 (or your local emergency services) immediately. If you are experiencing suicidal thoughts or a mental health crisis, contact the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline or another qualified crisis provider. Do not wait for a response from Serenity Co-Op.

No Crisis Monitoring

Serenity Co-Op does not provide crisis counseling, emergency intervention, or continuous monitoring of website forms, email, or social media messages.

Third-Party Resources

Links to crisis organizations are provided for convenience. Serenity Co-Op does not control or guarantee third-party services, availability, or outcomes.

Educational Purpose

Consistent with our mission of improving wellness through education, accessibility, and community, the Crisis Center exists to increase awareness of available support—not to replace licensed professionals or emergency responders.

Acceptance

By using this website and its Crisis Center resources, you acknowledge and accept this disclaimer.